

Card Winder

Order Code CDW:001

- Compact design
- Stainless steel
- Robust
- Used for colour samples and inspection

Power driven inspection card winder, popular for the preparation of sample cards and colour test specimens. Also used for small scale inspection boards to view neps, thick and thin places and visual characteristics.

Unit is available as a single directional model for single-layered samples or a bi-directional model for multi-layered samples.

Standard unit is complete with one guide and a maximum traverse length of 30cm. Up to 20 ends / guides can be added with one card winder. Additional guides available upon request.

Card specification:

Min/max length (horizontal): 3-30cm
Min/max length (vertical): 3-25cm

Options:

Single Direction
Order code CDW:001

Bi-directional
Order code CDW:002

Durometer

Order code - DUR:001

- Measures winding density
- Used to test a wide range of textile packages including bobbins, beams, cones, dye packages etc

Popular Durometer for the quick and accurate measurement of winding density in textile packages and similar situations.

Hand held, compact unit with case.

Meets ASTM D2240 specifications.